Summer Student Position

This position will provide opportunities for local youth to gain experience working in early intervention with children who have developmental delays. Working at our non-profit Child Development Centre will also allow them to explore future career paths.

Anticipated Start Date: Monday May 11, 2020
Duration: up to 16 weeks
Hours: 8:30am-4:30pm up to 37.5 hours per week
Days: Monday thru Friday
Wage: $16.50/hour

Requirements:

Enrolled in Post-Secondary education: Pediatric Mental Health, Social Sciences, Sciences, or Humanities. A student considering one of the Therapies (PT, OT, SLP) or studies in Social Service/Sciences will be given preference for this position.

Consent to Criminal Record Check.

Current First Aid is preferred.

Tasks and Responsibilities:

The Summer Student will work within NONA's multidisciplinary team.

The student will assist with NONA groups for children ages 2 to 5 with developmental delays. This will include group prep, setup, and clean up. During groups, the student will actively work with NONA staff in providing opportunities for growth and clinical support through play activities.

Other tasks may include: assisting with clerical support, yard work, or other areas where support is needed within NONA Child Development Centre.

Supervision of the Summer Student will be shared by Erin Hutton and Tania Wirachowsky, NONA Behaviour Analysts.
