

Job Posting Casual Behaviour Interventionist

JOB SUMMARY: Working within the NONA Autism Services Program, the casual position will assist children to participate in the program activities of the child's behaviour plan as developed by an interdisciplinary team.

RESPONSIBLE TO: Autism Services Program Manager

---

EDUCATION, TRAINING & EXPERIENCE:

- Grade 12 education or equivalent
- Six months recent related experience working with young children with developmental disabilities
- Current criminal record check
- Valid drivers license and provide own transportation
- Current First Aid Certificate preferred

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assists the child to participate in all program activities such as following the individualized plan as determined and directed by the interdisciplinary team
- Collect data by observing and recording the child's progress on the Individual Program Plan
- Prepares materials for child's program i.e. LessonPix materials, visual supports
- Observes, records and reviews child's program with interdisciplinary team
- Participates in team meetings by providing input on the child's progress on the Individual Program Plan

SKILLS & ABILITIES

- Communicate effectively in a verbal and written manner
- Take direction and to follow planned programs
- Ability to follow instructions and to work cooperatively and effectively
- Physically be able to perform the duties of the position

HOURS: Must be available Monday to Friday 8:15am to 4:15pm

GRID LEVEL: Health Science Association- Community Health Subsector Collective Agreement Grid 20, Step 1

INTERESTED AND QUALIFIED PERSONNEL, please email Rebecca Robertson, Autism Services Program Manager at rebecca.robertson@nona-cdc.com. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

